Boston Slabman Twirls Wonderful Ball-Great Speed and Fine Control-Wagner Plays Sensational Game at Short -Tesreau in Good Form After First Few Innings-Winning Team Players to Receive $4,000 Each.

New York National league champions by a score of 3 to 1 in the fourth game of the world's series. The Red Sox have now won two games of the series, and the Giants one game, the second contest having ended in a tie. More than 36,000 people jammed in the confines of the Brush stadium, saw simon-pure baseball in a contest to-day that thrilled inning by inning. Both teams played in true form and the nervousness shown by the players in the early contests was not observed.

Turned the Bostons back in one, two, three order. The moist ball flinger was taken out only to allow a pinch hitter to bat for him.

There were thirteen strike outs during the game. For Boston, Cady struck out twice, and Lewis, Stahl and Wagner once each. On the New York side, Murray and Merkle were fanned twice and Tesreau went out once each by the strike-out route.

Too Much Speed for Giants. Too Much Speed for Giants.

"Smoky" Joe Wood shone again, and the Red Sox players fairly hugged their star boxman as he walked from the playing field with his second victory over the New York club dangling from his belt. Gray clouds screened the sun, and in the murky atmosphere Wood's speed ball worked havoc with the Giants' batting. Only once was a Giant batter able to gauge the Boston man's curves for a hit when a hit meant a run.

ton man's curves for a hit when a hit meant a run.

The infield was wet from a night's rain and Wood stood on the hurling mound for nine innings with a pile of sawdust beside him to dry the ball before each delivery to the plate. His service was without blemish or flaw, not one man being passed, while eight Giants walked to the plate and then walked back again after value ity. walked back again after value try-ing to read the riddle of the Boston boxman's mystifying drop balls an-fast inshoots.

Wood was only in trouble in two innings, in the sixth and again in the seventh, when the home club's only run came over the plate. The sixth showed Wood at his best. Tesreau jabbed a hit to left and Devore bounced a drive off Wood's ankle for a base before anyone was out. The stands before anyone was out. The stands were wild with excitement and tried to rattle the Boston pitcher. But Wood was as cool as a Labrador iceberg in March. He caused Larry Doyle to popout and then fed Snodgrass and Murray on quick-breaking down shoots, making those Giant hitters send weak rollers to the Red Sox infield.

Boston broke into the run column on the second when Gardner tripled and acored on Tesreau's wild heave of a moist ball. The second run came in the fourth when Stahl reached first on a forced hit, stole second, went to

The horses were sent away on the second scoring, and it was evident almost from the first quarter that the record would be shattered. Not a break was made during the trial, both horses working like machines.

The racing card was featured by the pacing division of the Kentucky Futurity for 3 year old pacers with a valuation of $2,000. This event was won after four heats by Anna Axme, by Ask Me Not. This game little filly went to the post a heavily backed favorite, but put her backers on the uneasy list when she broke soon after the start in the first heat and finished fourth. However, she came back strong and captured the next three heats in easy style. The first heat went to Ed Locanda.
